Dedication

Art has always been a part of my life and I thank my parents for encouraging me to create and inspiring me to pursue my dreams.

Thank you to my “second set” of parents, my in-laws, for giving me the precious gift of time by sharing afternoons and evenings with my children so that I could write, paint, or go on a date with my husband.

To my husband, Michael, and my daughters, Nicole and Kristen, who were so patient and supportive during this project, I thank you for all of the joy and laughter you bring to my life.
