We dedicate this book to our students.
They encourage and inspire us in the teaching of constitutional law.
In particular this book is dedicated to all of those students who ask us for the “black letter” Constitutional Law as they prepare for course and bar exams.

Series Editor's Foreword

The Carolina Academic Press Mastering Series is designed to provide you with a tool that will enable you to easily and efficiently “master” the substance and content of law school courses. Throughout the series, the focus is on quality writing that makes legal concepts understandable. As a result, the series is designed to be easy to read and is not unduly cluttered with footnotes or cites to secondary sources.

In order to facilitate student mastery of topics, the Mastering Series includes a number of pedagogical features designed to improve learning and retention. At the beginning of each chapter, you will find a “Roadmap” that tells you about the chapter and provides you with a sense of the material that you will cover. A “Checkpoint” at the end of each chapter encourages you to stop and review the key concepts, reiterating what you have learned. Throughout the book, key terms are explained and emphasized. Finally, a “Master Checklist” at the end of each book reinforces what you have learned and helps you identify any areas that need review or further study.

We hope that you will enjoy studying with, and learning from, the Mastering Series.

Preface

Professor Knechtle and Professor Roederer would like to thank Dean Peter Goplerud and Florida Coastal School of Law for their support through summer research grants and research assistants. We thank Professor Paul F. Rothstein of Georgetown University Law School and our colleagues Professors Jeff McFarland and John Stinneford, for reviewing draft chapters. We also thank the numerous talented research assistants who have assisted with this project over the last couple of years, including: Jason Pfeil, Marcus Colicelli, Laura Stevens, Brian Hart, Kevin W. Moore, W. Jeremy Salter, Melanie C. Schneider, Jessica R. Rieffel, Nina L. Banaie, and Heather L. Gurgiolo.
