

Foundations of Criminal Investigation

Foundations of Criminal Investigation

Frank Morn

Carolina Academic Press
Durham, North Carolina

Copyright © 2000
Frank Morn
All Rights Reserved

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Morn, Frank, 1937–
Foundations of criminal investigation / Frank Morn.
p. cm.
Includes bibliographical references
ISBN 0-89089-874-X
1. Criminal investigation. 2. Forensic sciences. I. Title.
HV8073.M7824 1999
363.25—dc21 99-28283
CIP

Carolina Academic Press
700 Kent Street
Durham, North Carolina 27701
Telephone (919) 489-7486
Fax (919) 493-5668
E-mail: cap@cap-press.com
www.cap-press.com

Printed in the United States of America

Contents

INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1 Scientific Method and the Criminal Investigative Process	5
Introduction	5
The Scientific Method	7
Determination of a Problem	7
Collection of Information	8
Analysis of Information	13
Presentation of Information	15
The Good Investigator	15

Chapter 2 History of Criminal Investigation	19
Introduction	19
America	21
Colonial Era	21
Nineteenth Century	22
Twentieth Century	25
Progressive Era, 1900 –1920	25
Crime Control Decades, 1920 –1960	26
Modern Era, 1960s and Beyond	28
Conclusion	29

INVESTIGATIVE PROCESS

Chapter 3 Preliminary Investigations	33
Introduction	33
General Connections	33
Definitions	33
Importance	35
Crime Scene Investigation	37
Initial Steps	37

Secondary Steps	38
Third Steps	47
Conclusion	49
Chapter 4 Physical Evidence and the Investigative Process	51
Introduction	51
Definitions	51
Importance	52
Thesis	52
Most Powerful Physical Evidence	53
Blood and Secretions or Serology	53
Fingerprints or Dactyloscopy	57
Patterns	58
Ridge Characteristics	59
Powerful Physical Evidence	62
Dental Evidence or Forensic Odontology	63
Hair	63
Firearms or Ballistics Evidence	65
Ammunition	66
Questionable Documents	68
Less Powerful Physical Evidence	70
Glass	70
Soil	73
Fibers	74
Tool Marks	74
Other Examples	74
Conclusion	75
Chapter 5 Forensic Science	77
Introduction	77
Definitions	77
Role and Importance	77
Forensic Pathology	79
History	79
Structure and Science	80
Fresh Bodies	81
Ripe Bodies	83
System and Procedure	85
Criminalistics	88
History	88
Hierarchy of Criminalistic Laboratories	89
Conclusions	95

Chapter 6 Witnesses and Interviewing	97
Introduction	97
Definitions	98
Problems	98
Witnesses	100
Uncooperative Witnesses	100
Cooperative Witnesses	101
The Interview	103
Basics	104
The Process	105
Beginnings	105
Main body	106
Rapport	107
Questions	108
Restoring Memory	109
Endings	115
Conclusion	115
Chapter 7 Latent Investigation I	117
Introduction	117
The Process	117
Field Reports	117
Case Disposition	118
Re-interview	120
Neighborhood Canvass	121
Crimes Analysis	121
Internal informational sources	124
Informants	128
Social Network Analysis	129
Surveillance	130
Undercover	132
Psychics	134
Conclusion	135
Chapter 8 Latent Investigation II	137
Introduction	137
The Process	137
Search	137
Definitions	137
Landmark Cases	138
Types of Search	138
Consent	140

Plain View	140
Open Fields	140
Exigent Circumstances	140
Automobile Searches	141
Incident to an Arrest	141
Stop and Frisk	141
Entry and Arrest	141
Media	142
Lineups	144
Interrogation	146
Definitions	146
Landmark Cases	146
Interrogative Procedure	147
The Interrogator	147
The Setting	148
The Interrogation	148
Detecting of Deception	150
Confessions	155
Documentation	156
Conclusions	156
Chapter 9 The Criminal Investigator and the Courts	159
Introduction	159
Rules of Evidence	160
Order of Proof and Corpus Delicti	160
Admissibility	161
Types of Evidence	163
Officer in the Courtroom	165
Importance	165
Presentation	166
Conclusions	170
 SPECIFIC CRIMES INVESTIGATION
Chapter 10 Death Investigation	173
Introduction	173
Issues	174
Death and Bodies	176
Discovery of Bodies	177
Bodies in the Outdoors	177
Buried Bodies	177
Water Graves	179

Wounds on Bodies	183
Firearms	183
Knife	184
Blows	186
Poisons	186
Strangulation	186
Drowning	187
Fire	188
Explosions	188
Suffocation	189
Falls	189
Homicide	189
Introduction	189
Homicide Types	191
Homicide Motives	192
Cover-up Strategies	193
Multiple Killings	194
Definitions	194
Serial Killers	194
Analysis of Serial Killers	197
Suicide	203
Introduction	203
Motives for Suicide	204
Methods for Suicide	205
Conclusions	207
Chapter 11 Sexual Offenses	209
Introduction	209
Definitions	209
Rape and Sexual Assault	211
General	211
History and the Law	211
Problem	215
Types of Rapists	216
The Rapist	217
Investigation of Rape	221
Child Molestation	228
General	228
Typologies	229
Situational	229
Preferential	230
Profiling the Pedophile	231

Event Styles	233
Investigation	234
Conclusions	238
Chapter 12 Arson Investigation	239
Introduction	239
Definitions	239
Explosions	239
General	239
Definitions	239
History	240
Bombers and Their Motives	242
Bomb Devices	244
Initiation	251
Investigation	252
Fire	255
Magnitude	255
Difficulties	256
Definitions	257
Phases of a Fire	258
Places of Fire	259
Motives of Arson	262
Irrational	262
Rational	263
Mechanisms of Arson	265
Burn Patterns	266
Conclusions	271
Chapter 13 Theft Investigation	273
General	273
Robbery	274
Motivation for Committing Robbery	277
Robbery Categories	277
The Robbery	280
Investigations	282
Burglary	283
Residential Burglary	284
The Burglar	285
Deciding to Commit a Burglary	286
Choosing the Target	287
Entering the Target	288
Search and Discovery	290

Departure	290
Disposing	291
Commercial Burglary	291
Simple	292
Sophisticated	292
Investigation of Burglary	293
Other Thefts	293
Fencing	293
Automobile Theft	295
Shoplifting	297
Computer Crime	300
Investigating Computer Crime	302
Con fidence Games	304
Simple	304
Sophisticated	305
Conclusions	306
Index	307

