ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thank you so much to Zoë Oakes, Kelly Miller, Suzanne Morgen, Keith Sipe and the rest of the team at Carolina Academic Press for their hard work on this book, for believing in this project, and for their patience. It was very much appreciated.

Special thanks to Carol Hansell and Anita Anand for their help in connecting me with experts in Canadian law. I also would like to thank Eleanor Farrell and Philippe Tardiff for taking the time to provide me with advice and assistance with respect to shareholder rights and activism in Canada, particularly for their insights with respect to proxy access issues in Canada. Thanks to David Bennett for excellent research assistance.

My heartfelt thanks for the love of my family who supported me throughout this project and support me in all things: to my husband Roger for your support in this and everything I do—I will love you always; to my daughters Fatima, Regina, and Nadia, you are my source of inspiration and I am proud of all that you do—“don’t be a hard rock when you truly are a gem..”; to my mom Elizabeth, I love you so much for always believing in me and showing me that I can shine; to my mother-in-law Charlene, thank you for making me a part of your family; to my brothers Omar and Ischmael, you are the best and never ever far from my heart; thank you to my other brothers Chris, Justin, and Darin; special thanks to Cerina, Jennifer, and Virginia, you are the sisters I always wanted, thank you so much for your support; to my Aunt Barbara, Charlene, and Tanya, thank you for always being there; to my dad, the writing is for you—I love you; to LaMonica Denise, you have never let me down and for that I am always grateful; and to all of my other relatives too numerous to name, but always in my heart, thank you for your guidance, support, and encouragement.
