
Professional Writing for Lawyers

Professional Writing for Lawyers

SKILLS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Second Edition

Margaret Z. Johns
Clayton S. Tanaka

CAROLINA ACADEMIC PRESS

Durham, North Carolina

Copyright © 2012

Margaret Z. Johns

Clayton S. Tanaka

All rights reserved.

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Johns, Margaret Z.

Professional writing for lawyers : skills and responsibilities / Margaret Z. Johns and Clayton S. Tanaka. -- 2nd ed.

p. cm.

Includes bibliographical references.

ISBN 978-1-59460-788-2 (alk. paper)

1. Legal composition. I. Tanaka, Clayton S. II. Title.

KF250.J64 2012

808.06'634--dc23

2011050112

CAROLINA ACADEMIC PRESS

700 Kent Street

Durham, North Carolina 27701

Telephone (919) 489-7486

Fax (919) 493-5668

www.cap-press.com

Printed in the United States of America

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Chapter 1 • Office Memorandum	3
Professional Responsibilities in Providing Legal Opinions	3
Duty of competence	4
Duty to the client as an advisor and an advocate	5
Duty to the justice system as an officer of the court	6
Legal Research Strategies	7
Plan your research	7
Take careful notes	11
Statutes	11
Cases	12
Legal Research Synthesis	13
Office Memorandum	15
Purpose of an office memorandum	16
Audience for an office memorandum	17
Form and content of an office memorandum	17
Heading	17
Question Presented	18
Brief Answer	19
Statement of facts	22
Discussion	23
Statutes	24
Cases	26
Conclusion	29
Outline Template for an Office Memorandum	30
Sample Outline	31
Sample Office Memorandum	33
Chapter 2 • Client Letter	39
Professional Responsibilities in Advising Clients	39
Duty to keep the client informed	39

Duty to explain the law in plain English	40
Duty to discuss all relevant considerations	41
Duty of candor	43
Duty to preserve client confidences	43
Purpose of a Client Letter	44
Audience for a Client Letter	46
Form and Content of a Client Letter	46
Opening paragraph	46
Review the facts	47
Explain the law	48
Present the options	48
Provide copies of documents	49
Request additional information	49
Closing paragraph	49
Tone and Style of a Client Letter	50
Outline Template for a Client Letter	52
Sample Client Letter	53
Chapter 3 • Rewritten Office Memorandum	57
Rewrite Your Memorandum	58
Consider the reader's comments	58
Reconsider the content	59
Revise the large-scale organization	60
Review each paragraph	61
Edit Your Memorandum	63
Write short sentences	64
Omit surplus words	64
Use quotations sparingly	65
Proofread Your Memorandum	65
Rewriting Checklist for an Office Memorandum	66
Chapter 4 • Demand Letter	69
Professional Responsibilities in Writing a Demand Letter	69
Obligation to communicate through counsel	69
Constraints on threatening criminal process	70
Obligation to be truthful	71
Professional courtesy toward the opponent	72
Purposes of a Demand Letter	74
Audience for a Demand Letter	74
Form and Content of a Demand Letter	74
Opening paragraph	75

Explain your client's position	75
Demand an appropriate response	76
State the consequences of noncompliance	76
Tone and Style of a Demand Letter	77
Outline Template for a Demand Letter	78
Sample Demand Letter	79
Chapter 5 • Complaint	81
Professional Responsibilities in Drafting a Complaint	81
Drafting as an advocate and an officer of the court	81
Professional etiquette in service of process	84
Professional courtesy in allowing time to respond	85
Purposes of a Complaint	86
Audience for a Complaint	87
Form and Content of a Complaint	87
Caption	88
Statement of jurisdiction	89
Statement of the claim	90
Demand for judgment	93
Attorney's signature	94
Jury demand	94
Local rules requirements	95
Pleading Strategies	96
Plead all appropriate theories and remedies	96
Follow the guidance of the appellate courts	97
Use form books cautiously	97
Disclose facts strategically	98
Allege uncertain facts on information and belief	99
Make your complaint interesting	99
Filing the Complaint	99
Outline Template for a Federal Civil Complaint	101
Sample Complaint, Summons, and Civil Cover Sheet	102
Chapter 6 • Memorandum Evaluating Responsive Pleadings	115
Professional Responsibilities in Filing Responsive Pleadings	115
Integrating Procedural Issues into an Office Memorandum	117
Question Presented	118
Brief Answer	119
Statement of Facts	120
Discussion	120
Conclusion	121

Chapter 7 • Motion to Dismiss	123
Professional Responsibilities in Motion Practice	123
Audience for a Motion to Dismiss	126
Form and Content of a Motion to Dismiss	127
Notice of hearing	127
Motion to dismiss	128
Points and authorities	128
Introduction	129
Statement of facts	129
Argument	130
Point Headings	130
Narrative argument	131
Conclusion	133
Proof of service	133
Outline Template for a Motion to Dismiss	134
Sample Notice of Motion and Motion	135
Sample Points and Authorities	137
Sample Proof of Service	146
Chapter 8 • Rewritten Office Memorandum	149
Rewrite Your Memorandum	149
Reconsider the content	149
Revise the large-scale organization	150
Review each paragraph	150
Edit Your Memorandum	151
Use base verbs	151
Prefer the active voice	152
Learn conventional legal usage	153
Use appropriate procedural language	153
Use appropriate verbs	154
Use appropriate tenses	154
Check for pronoun agreement	155
Proofread Your Memorandum	155
Rewriting Checklist for an Office Memorandum	156
Chapter 9 • Rewritten Motion to Dismiss	159
Rewrite Your Motion to Dismiss	159
Reconsider the content	159
Revise the large-scale organization	159
Review each paragraph	160
Edit Your Motion to Dismiss	160

Arrange your words with care	160
Choose your words with care	161
Be persuasive	161
Be respectful	161
Be subtle	162
Be positive	163
Avoid clichés	164
Arrange your words for emphasis	164
Use concrete words to emphasize and abstract words to minimize	165
Use parallelism	166
Proofread Your Motion to Dismiss	168
Rewriting Checklist for a Motion	170
Chapter 10 • Oral Argument	173
Professional Responsibilities in Oral Argument	173
Purpose of Oral Argument	175
Mechanics of Oral Argument	175
Preparation for Oral Argument	177
Outline the argument	177
Introduction	177
Statement of facts	179
Points of argument	179
Conclusion	180
Rehearse the argument	180
Techniques of Oral Advocacy	182
Be prepared	182
Adopt the appropriate demeanor and attitude	182
Be yourself	182
Stand up, look up, and speak up	183
Watch your body language	183
Welcome questions from the bench	183
Conclude quickly	186
A Word About Nerves	186
Outline Template for an Oral Argument	188
Chapter 11 • Appellate Brief	189
Professional Responsibilities Arising on Appeal	189
Purpose of an Appellate Brief	190
Audience for an Appellate Brief	191
Form and Content of an Appellate Brief	192

Table of contents	192
Table of authorities	193
Subject matter and appellate jurisdiction	193
Issue statement	194
Statement of the case	195
Nature of the case, course of proceedings, and disposition below	195
Statement of facts	195
Summary of argument	196
Argument	197
Point headings	197
Narrative argument	199
Organization	199
Application of law to facts	200
Conclusion	202
Local rules requirements	202
Formal requirements	202
Content requirements	204
Outline Template for an Appellate Brief	205
Sample Appellate Brief	206
Chapter 12 • Rewritten Appellate Brief	221
Rewrite Your Brief	221
Reconsider the content	221
Revise the large-scale organization	222
Review each paragraph	222
Edit Your Brief	223
Avoid language quirks	223
Punctuate carefully	224
Be persuasive	224
Criticize judges diplomatically	224
Qualify only when necessary	224
Use figures of speech cautiously	225
Proofread Your Brief	226
Rewriting Checklist for an Appellate Brief	228
Index	231

Acknowledgments

Many people deserve recognition for their contributions this book, including many thoughtful and talented legal writing scholars. I've tried to acknowledge my debts to them in the footnotes and apologize for this violation of the rules of readable writing.

Let me also thank the teachers, teaching assistants, and students who have used these materials over the years and provided so many suggestions and insights. In this group, I am especially grateful to my friends Toni Bernhard and Lois Sherman. My research assistants, Nicole Isger and Bill Smith, helped with everything from content to proofreading. Their perspective as students and teaching assistants was especially valuable in helping me understand my audience. I also wish to thank Saralee Buck for reading the manuscript.

But above all I'm grateful to Dick Wydick, my teacher, colleague, and friend. He is simply the best.

*Margaret Z. Johns
Davis, California
April, 1998*

This wonderful text has long deserved an update. Many thanks to Professor Margaret Johns for entrusting this effort to my students and me. Special recognition goes to the following King Hall students and graduates: Rahul "Brown" Chandhok, Philip I. Person, Scott Ostermiller, Nora Hayes-Roth, and Crystal Schautz. Special thanks go to our mentor, the great Professor Richard C. Wydick.

*Clayton S. Tanaka
Davis, California
August, 2011*