Acknowledgements

The authors wish to acknowledge the support of a substantial number of research assistants, all of whom were or are students at the DePaul University College of Law, in the preparation of the manuscript that forms the basis of this Fifth Edition of Illinois Criminal Law: A Survey of Crimes and Defenses. First, we wish to extend tremendous thanks to the important contribution of four Senior Research Assistants, who not only devoted a great amount of effort toward completion of this project, but also provided important leadership and direction to other persons who were involved in this endeavor. They are Tyler Brimmer, Sean Conley, Katie Idzik and Kim Musick. This treatise was developed over the period of over three years beginning in 2009 and, as such, we enjoyed the support of many additional research assistants during this period. They were Ian Burkow, Ashlee Cuza, Ryan DeGroot, Lisa Duarte, Gretchen Eckerdt, Leah Farmer, Renee Gross, Darron Hubbard, Elizabeth Keleher, David Larson, Suresh Pillia, Jason Roach, Elyse Ryan, Adam Sedia and Melissa Skinner. Each year since the publication of the Fourth Edition of this treatise, we were responsible for completion of the annual Cumulative Supplement, which provided the foundation for this latest edition. Daria Porta, a Senior Research Assistant, as well as Matthew Bing and Jessica Bloodgood were involved in this important endeavor. We also wish to give special thanks to Whitney Bloomer, our “prose” expert, whose editing greatly improved the flow of each chapter of this treatise. Finally, we wish to thank our family, friends, colleagues and students for their patience and moral support as they endured the challenges and distractions we encountered in completing this manuscript.
