LexisNexis Law School Publishing
Advisory Board

Paul Caron
Professor of Law
Pepperdine University School of Law Herzog Summer Visiting Professor in Taxation
University of San Diego School of Law

Bridgette Carr
Clinical Professor of Law
University of Michigan Law School

Olympia Duhart
Professor of Law and Director of Lawyering Skills & Values Program
Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law School

Samuel Estreicher
Dwight D. Opperman Professor of Law
Director, Center for Labor and Employment Law
NYU School of Law

Steven I. Friedland
Professor of Law and Senior Scholar
Elon University School of Law

Carole Goldberg
Jonathan D. Varat Distinguished Professor of Law
UCLA School of Law

Oliver Goodenough
Professor of Law
Vermont Law School

Paul Marcus
Haynes Professor of Law
William and Mary Law School

John Sprankling
Distinguished Professor of Law
McGeorge School of Law
COMPARATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW:
A CONTEXTUAL APPROACH

Stephen Ross
Professor of Law
Lewis H. Vovakis Distinguished Faculty Scholar
Penn State Dickinson School of Law

Helen Irving
Professor of Law
Sydney Law School
The University of Sydney

Heinz Klug
Evjue-Bascom Professor of Law
University of Wisconsin Law School
Senior Honorary Research Associate, Law School
University of the Witwatersrand
Dedication

Dedicated to our partners, Mary Wujek, Stephen Gaukroger, Gay Seidman, and our children, Elizabeth and Sara (Alex) Ross Kinports, Cressida and Hugh Gaukroger, Benjamin and Matthew Klug
Table of Contents

Introduction
A FEW THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW BEFORE TAKING THIS COURSE, AND WHY YOU SHOULD TAKE IT . . . . 1

I.1. WHY A COMPARATIVE STUDY OF AUSTRALIAN, CANADIAN, SOUTH AFRICAN AND U.S. CONSTITUTIONAL LAW IS A WORTHY ENDEAVOR .......................................................... 1

I.2. BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE ENACTMENT OF EACH NATION’S CONSTITUTION ................................................................. 3
  I.2.1. The United States of America (1789 and 1860s) ......................................................... 3
  I.2.2. Canada (1867 and 1982) .......................................................................................... 5
  I.2.3. Australia (1900) ........................................................................................................ 6
  I.2.4. South Africa (1996) .................................................................................................. 8

I.3. A FEW BASIC SIMILARITIES AND DIFFERENCES TO UNDERSTAND AT THE OUTSET ....................................................... 13
  I.3.1. Significant cultural differences ............................................................................... 13
  I.3.2. Constitutional ideology .......................................................................................... 14

I.4. BASIC COMPARISONS OF THE LEGISLATIVE PROCESS IN POLITICAL CONTEXT: A BRIEF INTRODUCTION ......................... 19
  I.4.1. United States ........................................................................................................ 19
  I.4.2. Canada .................................................................................................................. 21
  I.4.3. Australia ............................................................................................................... 24
  I.4.4. South Africa ........................................................................................................ 26

I.5. APPROACHES TO CONSTITUTIONAL INTERPRETATION: A BRIEF SURVEY .............................................................. 29
  I.5.1. Originalism ........................................................................................................... 30
  I.5.2. Textualism ............................................................................................................ 30
  I.5.3. “Living” interpretation .......................................................................................... 31
  I.5.4. Pragmatism .......................................................................................................... 31
  I.5.5. Applying these theories: the “Persons” case ............................................................ 31
        Reference to Meaning of Word “Persons” In Section 24 of British North America Act, 1867 .................................................. 32
  I.5.6. Interpretation in different countries ....................................................................... 38

Chapter 1
FEDERALISM ......................................................... 41

1.1. THE CONCEPT OF FEDERALISM ............................................... 42
  1.1.1. Distinguishing constitutional federalism from efficiency decentralization .................... 42
  1.1.2. Why federalism? ............................................................................................... 42
  1.1.3. Distinguishing co-operative government ................................................................ 43

1.2. THE FEDERALISM OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL TEXTS .......... 43
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.2.1.</td>
<td>Canada</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2.2.</td>
<td>United States</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2.3.</td>
<td>Australia</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2.4.</td>
<td>South Africa</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.</td>
<td>BASIC PRINCIPLES OF CANADIAN FEDERALISM</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.1.</td>
<td>Early doctrine: narrow construction of the Trade &amp; Commerce power</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.1.1.</td>
<td>First cases</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>In re the Board of Commerce Act, 1919, and the Combines and Fair</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prices Act, 1919</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.2.</td>
<td>The modern view of Trade &amp; Commerce</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>General Motors of Canada Ltd. v. City National Leasing</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.3.</td>
<td>The limits to the “POGG” and Agriculture power</td>
<td>57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.4.</td>
<td>The breadth of the criminal law power</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Morgentaler v. The Queen (“Morgentaler I”)</td>
<td>59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.5.</td>
<td>Judicial reasoning in policing Canadian federalism: “Colourability”</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3.6.</td>
<td>Limits on Provincial power</td>
<td>64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Her Majesty the Queen v. Morgentaler [Morgentaler III]</td>
<td>64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.</td>
<td>BASIC PRINCIPLES OF U.S. FEDERALISM</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.1.</td>
<td>Scope of deference</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>McCulloch v. Maryland</td>
<td>71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.2.</td>
<td>Scope of the Commerce Clause</td>
<td>74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Gibbons v. Ogden</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Cooley v. The Board of Wardens of the Port of Philadelphia</td>
<td>77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.3.</td>
<td>Judicial Limits on Federal Legislative Power: the narrowing and</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>broadening of the scope of the Commerce Clause from the Lochner</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>era to Jones &amp; Laughlin</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.4.</td>
<td>The rise and fall and rise and fall of the Tenth Amendment as a</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>significant limit on federal legislative power</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.5.</td>
<td>Lack of requirement that Commerce Clause power be exercised only for</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>commercial regulatory concerns</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.6.</td>
<td>The pendulum swings back</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>United States v. Morrison</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>National Federation of Independent Business v. Sebelius</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4.7.</td>
<td>Limits on state legislative power</td>
<td>103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Pike v. Bruce Church, Inc.</td>
<td>105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5.</td>
<td>BASIC PRINCIPLES OF AUSTRALIAN FEDERALISM</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5.1.</td>
<td>The expansion of federal power via interpretation:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Engineers Case</td>
<td>111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5.2.</td>
<td>Implied restraint on the scope of federal power: the “Melbourne</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Corporation doctrine”</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Melbourne v. Commonwealth (“Melbourne Corporation Case”)</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1.5.3. Further growth in federal power: “external affairs” .......................... 115

   Commonwealth v. Tasmania (“Tasmanian Dam Case”) .................. 116

1.5.4. The Trade & Commerce power ................................................. 119

1.5.5. Limitations on state power: section 92’s requirement that trade and commerce must be “absolutely free” .................................. 122

1.5.6. Federal expansion yet again: the “corporations power” and Work Choices ................................................................. 123

   NSW v. Commonwealth (“Work Choices Case”) ...................... 124

1.6. BASIC PRINCIPLES OF SOUTH AFRICAN CO-OPERATIVE
    GOVERNMENT ................................................................. 125

   1.6.1. The distribution of legislative authority under co-operative government ................................................................. 125

   1.6.2. The Constitutional Court’s interpretation of the principles of Co-operative Government ........................................... 126

          Uthukela District Municipality v. The President of the Republic of South Africa ........................................................... 127

   1.6.3. Disputes over the allocation of legislative authority ...................... 129

       1.6.3.1. Constitutional allocation of legislative power .................. 130

               The Premier of the Province of the Western Cape v. The President of the Republic of South Africa ................................ 131

       1.6.3.2. Scope of residual national legislative power ..................... 137

               The Executive Council of the Province of The Western Cape and the Executive Council of Kwazulu-Natal v. The President of the Republic of South Africa ........................................ 137

       1.6.3.3. Scope of exclusive Provincial power .............................. 142

               Ex Parte the President of the Republic of South Africain Re:
               Constitutionality of the Liquor Bill ............................. 142

1.7. CONTRASTING APPROACHES TO FEDERALISM: ADDITIONAL
    COMPARATIVE NOTES AND QUESTIONS .................................. 150

   1.7.1. Fiscal federalism and the taxing and spending powers ................ 150

   1.7.2. Active judicial policing of federalism and the national political process ........................................................................ 153

   1.7.3. Federalism and partisan politics ......................................... 156

   1.7.4. Originalism awry .......................................................... 158

Chapter 2 DEFINING THE SCOPE OF CONSTITUTIONAL
PROTECTION FOR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS ...................... 161

   2.1. INTRODUCTION .................................................................. 162

       2.1.1. Scope of this chapter .................................................... 162

       2.1.2. A chronological summary ............................................. 163

       2.1.3. Close judicial scrutiny of interference with fundamental rights 165
Table of Contents

2.1.4. Interpreting “liberty” in the shadow of Lochner ........................................ 168
   Lochner v. New York ................................................................. 168
   Ferguson v. Skrupa ................................................................. 172

2.2. CLOSE SCRUTINY OF DEPRIVATIONS OF LIBERTY UNDER THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT .................................................................. 174
   Roe v. Wade ................................................................. 178
   Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey ............ 184
   Lawrence v. Texas ................................................................. 194

2.3. CLOSE SCRUTINY OF DEPRIVATIONS OF LIBERTY AND SECURITY OF THE PERSON UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE CANADIAN CHARTER OF RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS .................. 199
   Morgentaler v. The Queen (“Morgentaler II”) .................. 202

2.4. DEFINING THE SCOPE OF BROADLY WORDED PROVISIONS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONSTITUTION AND BILL OF RIGHTS . 210
   S v. Makwanyane ................................................................. 211
   De Reuck v. Director of Public Prosecutions .......................... 215

2.5. CONSIDERATION OF IMPLIED LIMITS ON GOVERNMENTS TO INFRINGE INDIVIDUAL FREEDOMS IN AUSTRALIA .................. 221
   Australian Capital Television PTY Ltd v. Commonwealth ....... 225
   Lange v. Australian Broadcasting Corporation ........................ 230

Chapter 3
BALANCING THE VALUES OF DIGNITY, EQUALITY,
AND FREEDOM ................................................................. 237

3.1. INTRODUCTION ................................................................. 237
3.1.1. The concept of human dignity and its relation to equality and freedom . 237
3.1.2. Organization of this chapter .............................................. 238

3.2. BASIC APPROACHES TO FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION ............................................................................ 239
3.2.1. Basic U.S. approach to free speech .................................. 239
   3.2.1.1. Circumstances that justify content-based speech restrictions .... 242
   3.2.1.2. Content-neutral restrictions ........................................ 245
3.2.2. Basic Canadian approach to free speech .......................... 245
   3.2.2.1. Pre-Charter antecedents ............................................... 246
   3.2.2.2. Basic Charter principles ............................................... 246
   Irwin Toy Ltd. v. Quebec (Attorney General) .................... 246
3.2.3. Basic Australian approach to free speech ........................ 253
   3.2.3.1. Overview of the implied freedom of political communication .... 254
   3.2.3.2. More recent cases .................................................... 256
3.2.4. Basic South African approach to free speech .................. 258

3.3. BALANCING RACIAL EQUALITY AND FREEDOM: HATE
    SPEECH .............................................................................. 259
3.3.1. Canada ................................................................. 259

Table of Contents

3.3.2. United States ......................................................... 270

3.3.3. South Africa ......................................................... 277

The Islamic Unity Convention v. Independent Broadcasting Authority ........................................ 277

3.3.4. Australia ............................................................. 282

3.4. BALANCING GENDER EQUALITY AND FREEDOM: REGULATION OF PORNOGRAPHY ......................................................... 285

3.4.1. Canada ............................................................. 285

R. v. Butler ............................................................. 285

3.4.2. United States ......................................................... 291

American Booksellers Association, Inc. v. Hudnut ........................................ 292

3.4.3. South Africa ......................................................... 297

De Reuck v. Director of Public Prosecutions (Witwatersrand Local Division) ........................................ 297

3.4.4. Australia ............................................................. 298

3.5. REGULATION OF ELECTION SPENDING ........................................ 299

3.5.1. United States ......................................................... 299

Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission ........................................ 300

3.5.2. Canada ............................................................. 308

Harper v. Canada (Attorney General) ........................................ 308

3.5.3. Australia ............................................................. 312

3.5.4. South Africa ......................................................... 313

Chapter 4 EQUALITY (GENERALLY) ........................................ 315

4.1. BACKGROUND AND OVERVIEW ........................................ 316

4.1.1. Origins of constitutional concern about equality ........................................ 316

4.1.1.1. Lack of original protection against racial and other forms of discrimination ........................................ 316

4.1.1.2. Modern responses to discrimination against racial and inequality ........................................ 318

4.1.1.2.1. U.S.: the Civil War amendments ........................................ 318

4.1.1.2.2. Canada: the Charter of Rights and Freedoms ........................................ 319

4.1.1.2.3. South Africa’s new Constitution ........................................ 319

4.1.1.2.4. Australia’s statutory response ........................................ 320

4.1.1.3. Illustration: evolving protection against gender-based discrimination ........................................ 321

4.1.2. The fundamental purpose of equality guarantees ........................................ 323

4.2. THE PROBLEM OF JUDICIAL SCRUTINY OF LEGISLATIVE CLASSIFICATIONS ........................................ 324

4.2.1. Articulating the problem ........................................ 324
Table of Contents

4.2.2. Examples of close scrutiny ........................................ 325
   United States v. Virginia ........................................ 325
   M. v. H. ......................................................... 330
   The National Coalition for Gay and Lesbian Equality v. The Minister of Home Affairs ................................................ 338

4.2.3. The “rational basis” test in American doctrine .................. 341
   Massachusetts Board of Retirement v. Murgia ..................... 341

4.3. WHICH CLASSIFICATIONS WARRANT CLOSE JUDICIAL SCRUTINY? ..................................................... 343

4.3.1. United States: suspect classifications and fundamental rights .... 344
   Slaughter-House Cases ........................................ 344
   United States v. Carolene Products Co. .......................... 346

4.3.2. Canada: substantive discrimination based on enumerated or analogous grounds ....................................................... 350
   Andrews v. Law Society of British Columbia ...................... 351
   Law v. Canada (Minister of Employment and Immigration) ...... 357
   R. v. Kapp ...................................................... 361

4.3.3. South Africa ................................................ 363
   Prinsloo v. Van Der Linde ....................................... 364
   Harken v. Lane .................................................. 369

4.3.4. Rationales for the absence of close scrutiny of most economic and social legislation .................................................... 377

4.4. INTENTIONAL DISCRIMINATION OR DISPARATE IMPACT .......... 379
   Personnel Administrator of Massachusetts v. Feeney ............ 379
   Eldridge v. British Columbia (Attorney General) ................. 384

4.5. SAME-SEX MARRIAGE ........................................... 389
   Minister of Home Affairs v. Fourie ................................ 390
   United States v. Windsor ........................................ 398

Chapter 5            SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS ................. 405

5.1. INTRODUCTION .................................................. 405

5.1.1. International and American roots ................................ 406

5.1.2. The South African approach: a summary ....................... 409

5.1.3. The significance of the South African approach for comparative analysis ....................................................... 410

5.2. JUDICIA LLY ENFORCEABLE PROTECTION OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS UNDER THE SOUTH AFRICAN
      CONSTITUTION ................................................ 411

5.2.1. Allocating scarce resources for health care ................... 411
   Soobramoney v. Minister of Health (KwaZulu-Natal) ............. 411

5.2.2. Basic right to housing ....................................... 413
Table of Contents

The Government of the Republic of South Africa v. Grootboom . . . 414
5.2.3. Access to essential medicines ........................................... 417
   Minister of Health v. Treatment Action Campaign ..................... 418
5.3. REASONABLENESS REVIEW .................................................. 421
   Khosa v. Minister of Social Development ................................. 422
   Mazibuko v. City of Johannesburg ......................................... 425
   City of Johannesburg v. Blue Moonlight Properties .................... 431
5.4. CONSIDERATION AND REJECTION IN THE UNITED STATES . . . 434
   5.4.1. The possibilities for inclusion through constitutional interpretation . 434
   5.4.2. The apex of American recognition of poverty rights .............. 435
      Goldberg v. Kelly ............................................................. 435
   5.4.3. The rejection of social and economic rights ....................... 440
      Dandridge v. Williams ...................................................... 440
   5.4.4. Explanations for the rejection of socio-economic rights in the U.S. . 452
5.5. SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS AS GUARANTEED BY PROTECTION OF “SECURITY OF THE PERSON” UNDER s. 7 OF THE CANADIAN CHARTER .......................................................... 453
   5.5.1. General background ...................................................... 453
          Chaoulli v. Attorney General of Quebec ............................. 455
5.6. NON-CONSTITUTIONAL RESPONSE OF THE AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT TO INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS ......................... 461

Chapter 6 THE REGULATION OF PROPERTY ......................... 465

6.1. OVERVIEW OF THE RIGHT TO PROPERTY .............................. 466
   6.1.1. Textual provisions .................................................... 466
   6.1.2. The issue of “constitutional jurisprudence” in considering the right to property .................................................... 467
   6.1.3. American foundations ................................................ 468
   6.1.4. Australian foundations ............................................... 468
   6.1.5. Canadian rejection of a constitutional right to property .......... 470
   6.1.6. The South African compromise ..................................... 470
   6.1.7. The jurisprudential/doctrinal challenge: distinguishing economic liberty .................................................... 470
6.2. AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION OF PROPERTY BUT NOT ECONOMIC REGULATION ........................................ 471
   6.2.1. Due Process limits on the use of property ....................... 472
          Mugler v. Kansas ........................................................... 472
   6.2.2. The doctrine of regulatory takings ................................ 475
          Pennsylvania Coal Company v. Mahon .............................. 475
   6.2.3. Distinguishing analysis under the Due Process and Takings Clause guarantees .................................................... 480
Table of Contents

Lingle v. Chevron U.S.A., Inc. ................................. 481
6.2.4. Active or deferential scrutiny ............................ 485
6.2.5. Summary ...................................................... 486
6.3. COMPULSORY ACQUISITION, JUST TERMS, AND THE AUSTRALIAN CONSTITUTION ................................. 487
6.3.1. What is “property”? ........................................ 487
6.3.2. What is an “acquisition of property”? .................... 489
Commonwealth v. Tasmania (“Tasmanian Dam Case”) .......... 490
JT International SA v. Commonwealth of Australia ............ 496
6.4. REJECTION OF CANADIAN CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION FOR
PROPERTY ............................................................. 503
Irwin Toy Ltd. v. Quebec (Attorney General) .................... 504
REFERENCE RE SS. 193 AND 195.1(1)(C) OF THE CRIMINAL
CODE (MAN.) “The Prostitution Reference” ..................... 505
6.5. CANADIAN AND AUSTRALIAN NON-CONSTITUTIONAL
PROTECTION FOR PROPERTY ................................. 509
6.5.1. The presumption against expropriation ...................... 509
6.5.2. The requirement of an acquisition for the benefit of the government or the public .......................................................... 511
Mariner Real Estate Ltd. v. Nova Scotia (Attorney General) ........ 512
6.5.3. Statutory compensation for ‘injurious affection’ ............ 518
Antrim Truck Centre Ltd. v. Ontario (Transportation) ............ 518
6.5.4. The supremacy of the political process in deliberate and clear expropriations ...................................................... 522
Durham Holdings Pty Ltd v. New South Wales .................... 522
6.6. SOUTH AFRICAN CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION OF PROPERTY ............................................................. 530
President of the RSA v. Modderklip Boerdery (Pty) Ltd ............ 532
First National Bank of SA Ltd T/A Wesbank v. Commissioner, SA
Revenue Service .................................................. 537
6.7. CONCLUDING NOTE ON THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN COMMON LAW RECOGNITION OF PROPERTY RIGHTS AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION .............................. 547
Lucas v. South Carolina Coastal Council .......................... 548
Chapter 7
UNITARY AND DUAL COURT SYSTEMS AND THE ROLE OF CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES IN PRIVATE
LITIGATION ...................................................... 555
7.1. ORGANIZATION OF THE JUDICIARY ..................... 555
7.1.1. United States .................................................. 555
7.1.2. Canada ......................................................... 556
7.1.3. Australia ....................................................... 557
Table of Contents

7.1.4. South Africa .................................................. 558
7.1.5. Who appoints the judges .................................. 558
7.2. THE CONCEPT OF STATE ACTION ......................... 560

Shelley v. Kraemer ........................................... 561
Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union, Local 580 v. Dolphin Delivery Ltd. ......................... 567
7.3. CASE STUDY OF CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND THE COMMON LAW: LIBEL ........................................... 576

New York Times Co. v. Sullivan ............................ 576
Hill v. Church of Scientology of Toronto .................. 581
Grant v. Torstar Corp. .......................................... 588
Lange v. Australian Broadcasting Corporation ........... 593
Khumalo v. Holomisa ........................................... 604
7.4. CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND THE COMMON LAW .... 609
7.4.1. Incorporating values into common law jurisprudence .... 609
7.4.2. Legal realism and the constitutionalization of the American common law .................................. 612

Chapter 8 ADVISORY OPINIONS, CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS, AND THE DETERMINATION OF JUDICIAL AUTHORITY ........................................... 615

8.1. THE CONCEPT OF AN “UNCONSTITUTIONAL” LAW OR GOVERNMENT ACT ............................................. 616

Marbury v. Madison ............................................. 616
Walter L. Nixon v. United States ............................. 624
The State v. Makwanyane ...................................... 629
Ex Parte Chairperson of the Constitutional Assembly: In re Certification of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (first Certification Decision) .................................. 631

8.2. ADVISORY OPINIONS ........................................... 636
8.2.1. United States ................................................. 636
8.2.2. Canada ...................................................... 639

Reference Re Secession of Quebec ............................ 639
8.2.3. Australia ..................................................... 646

In re Judiciary Act 1903-1920 & In re Navigation Act 1912-1920 ... 646
8.2.4. South Africa ................................................. 653

Tongoane v. Minister of Agriculture .......................... 654
8.3. THE CONCEPT OF CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION ........ 660

Madzimbamuto v. Lardner-Burke ............................ 662
8.3.1. Declaring the existence of conventions .................. 666
8.3.1.1. Constitutional conventions are not judicially-enforceable law ............................................. 667

“The Patriation Reference” (Part I) ......................... 667
Chapter 9

HOW ARE DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS BEST PROTECTED? ................................. 693

9.1. CHAPTER OVERVIEW ............................................ 693
9.1.1. Rights entrenchment versus parliamentary sovereignty .................. 694
9.1.2. The current rights debate in Australia ...................................... 696
9.1.3. Review of alternative ways to protect human rights ....................... 698
9.1.4. Why context matters ............................................. 699

9.2. CANADA: JUDICIAL PROTECTION FOR LINGUISTIC MINORITIES ...................... 701
9.2.1. Background on language rights in Canada .................................. 701
Paul C. Weiler, Rights and Judges in a Democracy: A New Canadian Version ............ 701
9.2.2. Background on the Notwithstanding Clause .................................. 705
9.2.3. Judicial protection of Anglophones in Quebec ............................... 707
Ford v. Quebec (Attorney-General) ........................................ 710
9.2.4. Judicial protection of Francophones in English Canada ................... 716
Barrett v. City of Winnipeg ............................................ 718
City of Winnipeg v. Barrett ............................................ 723

9.3. SEGUE: IS SEPARATE BUT EQUAL INHERENTLY UNEQUAL? ...................... 727
Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka ........................................ 727
Mahe v. Alberta ......................................................... 731

9.4. UNITED STATES: JUDICIAL PROTECTION OF RACIAL MINORITIES .................. 737
9.4.1. Proof of unconstitutional racial discrimination ............................... 737
9.4.2. Judicial review of race-conscious policies designed to benefit minorities ........................................................................ 738
Regents of the University of California v. Bakke ........................................ 738
Shelby County, Alabama v. Holder .................................................... 749
9.4.3. Contrasting Canadian doctrine regarding ameliorative practices .......... 757