Preface to 2017 Supplement

This Supplement is designed for use with the Sixth Edition of Cases and Materials on Civil Procedure. As in past Supplements, it has two parts. The first part contains notes on recent laws and significant court decisions since the publication of the Sixth Edition. The second part brings together the constitutional provisions, statutes, and rules used in the standard foundational Civil Procedure course. In particular, we have attempted to include all significant rule and statutory references made in the Sixth Edition. We have included the complete text of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (as of June 1, 2017), together with selected Advisory Committee Notes and the Official Forms; extensive selections from the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure; relevant portions of the Federal Rules of Evidence; Supreme Court Rule 10 governing certiorari; and selections from the United States Constitution and from Titles 28 and 42 of the United States Code. Your comments and suggestions are always welcome.
