About the Author

Professor Trahan received his J.D. with high honors from Louisiana State University's Paul M. Hebert Law Center in 1989, where he was the Articles Editor of the Law Review and a member of The Order of the Coif. Before joining the Law Center faculty in 1995, he served as a law clerk to the late Judge Alvin B. Rubin of the United States Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit, for one year and then practiced law with the firm Phelps Dunbar in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, for five years. A "civil law" specialist, he has taught, at one time or another, every course in the Law Center's so-called "civil law curriculum", that is, Western Legal Traditions, Obligations, Property, Persons & Family, Matrimonial Regimes, Sales & Leases, Security Devices, Successions & Donations, and Conflict of Laws. He is the author or co-author not only of this Précis, but also of several other books on the civil law of Louisiana, including Western Legal Traditions & Systems: Louisiana Impact, Yiannopoulos' Civil Law Property, Louisiana Law of Obligations: A Methodological & Comparative Perspective, Family Law in Louisiana, and Secured Credit: Louisiana & American Perspectives. He regularly lectures at the "Recent Developments" seminars put on by the Louisiana Center of Continuing Professional Development in the fields of property, sale, lease, and family law. He participates in law reform work as a member of the Council and of various Committees of the Louisiana State Law Institute and as one of Louisiana's delegates to the Uniform Law Commission.
