

LEGAL LITERACY AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Legal Literacy and Communication Skills

WORKING WITH LAW AND LAWYERS

JENNIFER MURPHY ROMIG

PROFESSOR OF PRACTICE
EMORY UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

MARK EDWIN BURGE

PROFESSOR OF LAW
TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

CAROLINA ACADEMIC PRESS

---

Durham, North Carolina

Copyright © 2025
Carolina Academic Press
All Rights Reserved

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Names: Romig, Jennifer Murphy, author. | Burge, Mark Edwin, author.
Title: Legal literacy and communication skills : working with law and lawyers / Jennifer Murphy Romig, Mark Edwin Burge.
Description: Second edition. | Durham, North Carolina : Carolina
Academic Press, 2024. | Includes bibliographical references and index.
Identifiers: LCCN 2024041912 | ISBN 9781531028589 (paperback) |
ISBN 9781531028596 (ebook)
Subjects: LCSH: Legal composition. | Communication in law--United States. | Law--United States--Language. | Courts--United States. |
Justice, Administration of--United States.
Classification: LCC KF250 .R66 2024 | DDC 808.06/634--dc23
LC record available at <https://lccn.loc.gov/2024041912>

Carolina Academic Press
700 Kent Street
Durham, North Carolina 27701
(919) 489-7486
www.cap-press.com

Printed in the United States of America

To my mom, Linda Kay Murphy, my inspiration for embracing creativity and valuing attention to detail

—JMR

To my wife, Rhonda West Burge, who has an amazing talent for making life better

—MEB

Contents

First Edition Acknowledgments	xix
Second Edition Acknowledgments	xxi
One Foundations of Legal Literacy	3
I. Literacy and Legal Literacy	4
II. Competent Legal Literacy	6
III. Legal Literacy Today	8
IV. Legal Literacy and the Structure of This Book	10
INTRODUCTION TO THE LEGAL LITERACY CASE STUDY	12
Two Foundations of the United States Legal System	15
I. Law: Relationships with Government and with Others	16
A. The Distinction between Criminal Law and Civil Law	16
B. The Distinction between Public Law and Private Law	18
II. The Legal Framework of United States Law	20
A. The Constitution and Branches of Government	21
1. The Legislative Branch (Article I of the Constitution)	21
2. The Executive Branch (Article II of the Constitution)	21
3. The Judicial Branch (Article III of the Constitution)	21
4. Other Key Constitutional Features	22
B. Federal and State Legal Systems	23
C. Local Government	25
III. How Law Changes Over Time	25
A. Changing Statutes and Regulations	26
B. Cases and the Changing Common Law	26
C. The Interplay of Cases and Statutes	27
IV. The Rule of Law	28
V. Conclusion	29
CASE STUDY: U.S. LEGAL STRUCTURE AND USES	30
Three Foundations of the Practice and Unauthorized Practice of Law	33
I. The Legally Literate Professional	34
II. Bridging the Gap with Lawyers	35

A. Roles in the Legal Landscape	36
B. The Practice of Law and the Unauthorized Practice of Law	36
C. State Variations	38
III. Problem Solving in the Shadow of the Unauthorized Practice of Law	40
A. The “Hot Potato” Approach	40
B. The “Lone Wolf” Approach	40
C. The Middle Ground: Working on Legal Issues with Law and Lawyers	41
1. “The Facts”	41
2. “Fit into a Legal Category”	41
3. “With Consequences”	42
IV. Working with Law as an Employee	43
V. Sharing Information and Solving Problems for Others	44
VI. Legal Analysis and the Practice of Law	45
CASE STUDY: BUSINESS PLANNING	47
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	48
Four Foundations of Reading Legal Information	51
I. Close Reading of Legal Texts: A Process	52
A. Step 1: Determine the Document Context	54
1. Primary and Secondary Sources	54
2. Contracts and Other Legal Instruments	55
3. Litigation Documents	56
4. Factual Documents	56
5. Negotiation Documents	57
6. Blurred Lines	57
B. Step 2: Skim the Text	57
1. Skimming for Structure	57
2. Skimming for Purpose	60
C. Step 3: Pick Your Strategy	61
D. Step 4: Identify Key Legal Language	61
1. Finding Substantive Key Terms	61
2. Finding Operative and Relational Key Terms	62
E. Step 5: Read Actively by Interacting with the Text	63
F. Step 6: Read Mindfully	64
II. Reading Cases: A Special Skill	65
A. The Parts of a Case	65
B. “Briefing” a Case	67
The Parties	67
The Court	67
The Year	68
The Issue	68
The Facts	68

The Reasoning	68
The Holding	68
Relevant Dicta	69
The Result (Sometimes Known as the Disposition)	69
III. Becoming a Better Reader Over Time	69
A. Obtaining Guidance from Others	70
B. Self-Improvement	70
C. Outside Resources	72
CASE STUDY: READING LAW	72
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	76
Five Foundations of Legal Analysis	79
I. Introduction to Predictive Legal Advice	80
II. IRAC: The Typical Legal Analysis Method	82
III. Rule-Based Reasoning	84
A. Elemental Tests	85
B. Factor Tests	86
C. Other Rule Variations	87
IV. Reasoning by Analogy	89
V. Predictive and Persuasive Analysis Amidst Uncertainty	89
VI. Legal Analysis in Action: An Example	91
A. Prelude to IRAC: Collecting the Facts	92
B. Issue — Stating the Thesis	94
C. R ule	95
1. Rule Statement: Isolating the Basic Legal Test	95
2. Explaining the Rule in Action	96
D. A pplication — Analogical Reasoning in Action	99
1. Supporting Analysis	99
2. Counter-Analysis	101
E. C onclusion — Meaningful Summation	102
VII. Client Follow-Up: Now What?	102
VIII. Tying It All Together	104
CASE STUDY: WORKING WITH LEGAL ANALYSIS	105
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	107
Six Using the Internet for Legal Research	109
I. Getting Started with Legal Research	111
A. Finding a Contextual Framework	111
B. Spotting Trends	112
C. Finding Specifics	112
D. Getting Comprehensive	113
II. Identifying the Standard for Successful Legal Research	113

A. Recognizing When Legal Information Is Needed	115
B. Knowing What Information Is Needed	115
C. Knowing How to Locate the Needed Information	116
D. Knowing How to Evaluate the Needed Information	117
E. Knowing How to Use the Needed Information	118
F. Knowing How to Use the Needed Information Effectively	119
III. Choosing a Starting Point	119
A. Official Websites	120
B. Reliable Legal Research Portals	121
C. General Purpose Search Engines	122
1. Basic Searching	122
2. Advanced Search Techniques	123
D. Proprietary Fee-Based Platforms	123
IV. Conducting Legal Research as a Process	124
A. Taking Good Notes	124
B. Applying Strong Legal Reading Skills	124
C. Balancing Persistence with Flexibility	125
D. Staying Organized, Both with Hard Copies and Online Material	125
V. Completing the Legal Research Process	126
CASE STUDY: PLANNING INTERNET RESEARCH	127
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	127
Seven Finding and Reading Secondary Sources	129
I. Basics of Secondary Research	130
A. What Is a “Source”?	130
B. Gaining Context	132
C. Finding Primary Sources	133
II. Types of Secondary Sources	133
A. Legal Dictionaries	134
B. Wikipedia	135
C. Scholarly Secondary Sources	135
D. Legal Blogs and Bar Journal Articles	137
E. Government Guides	137
F. Advocacy and Policy Guides	137
III. Practical Considerations for Evaluating Online Secondary Sources	138
A. Dates and Updates	138
B. Descriptive or Normative?	139
IV. Using Good Secondary Sources to Your Advantage	139
V. Writing about and Sharing Secondary Sources	140
VI. Conclusion	141
CASE STUDY: EVALUATING SOURCES	141
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	142

Eight Finding and Reading Statutes	145
I. The Basic Path of Legislation	146
II. The Organization of Statutory Codes	148
III. Researching State Codes and Legislative History Online	150
IV. Understanding and Using the Structure of a Code	151
V. Reading Statutes	151
A. A Brief Introduction to Statutory Interpretation	152
B. Differing Approaches to Statutory Interpretation	153
C. Canons of Construction	155
VI. Conclusion	156
CASE STUDY: FINDING AND COMPARING STATUTES	157
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	157
Nine Finding and Reading Regulations and Other Administrative Sources	159
I. Overview of the Federal Administrative State	160
II. Agencies and Their Statutory Mandates	164
III. Researching Administrative Law	165
A. The Federal Register (and State Counterparts)	165
B. Regulations.gov	168
C. Govinfo.gov	168
D. Agency Websites	169
E. State-Specific Administrative Law Sites	170
IV. Reading and Interpreting Agency Rules and Guidance	170
V. Administrative Adjudicatory Decisions	171
VI. Conclusion	172
CASE STUDY: REGULATORY RESEARCH	172
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	173
Ten Finding and Reading Cases	175
I. The Structure of the Court System in the United States	176
A. Trial Courts	177
B. Appellate Courts	179
C. Federal and State Courts	181
1. Federal Courts	181
2. State Courts	184
II. Researching Cases	185
A. Searching and Filtering for Jurisdiction	186
1. Researching State Law	186
2. Researching Federal Law	187
3. Not Sure If State or Federal Law, or Both	188
B. Searching and Filtering for a Key Term	188

C. Sorting Results	189
D. Validating and Updating Case Research: Is It “Good Law”?	190
III. Reading and Synthesizing Cases	191
IV. Conclusion	194
CASE STUDY: READING CASES	194
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	195
Eleven Reading and Writing Legal Citations	197
I. Basic Functions of Citations	198
A. Sample Citations	199
B. What Each Citation Communicates	199
II. A Quick History of Legal Citation	200
III. Basic Primer on Citation Formats	203
A. Primary Sources	203
B. Secondary Sources	204
IV. Reading Citations in Text	204
V. Citations as Part of Legal Literacy and Problem-Solving	206
A. Judging the Reliability of a Secondary Source	207
B. Assessing a Legal Source Found by Typing a Question into a Search Engine	207
C. Evaluating Primary Sources Contained within Another Primary Source	208
VI. Writing Legal Citations	209
A. Creating a Full Citation	209
B. Adding a Pinpoint Page Citation (Pincite)	210
C. Incorporating Legal Citations into the Text	210
D. Using Short Citations	212
VII. Alternatives to Formal Legal Citations: Attributions and Links	213
A. Choosing and Incorporating Hyperlinked Sources	213
B. Journalistic Attributions in Text	214
C. Footnotes	215
VIII. Conclusion	215
CASE STUDY: LEGAL CITATIONS	216
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	218
Twelve Reviewing Contracts—Form and Organization	221
I. What Do We Mean by the Term “Contract”?	222
II. Contract Drafting Style	224
III. Parts of a Formal Contract	225
A. Title	230
B. Preamble	231
C. Recitals (Background)	232

D. Words of Agreement	233
E. Definitions	234
F. Working Provisions	237
1. Principal Working Provisions	237
2. Secondary Working Provisions	239
3. Representations and Warranties	239
4. Construction Terms	240
5. Endgame Provisions	241
G. General Provisions (Boilerplate)	242
H. Signature Blocks	244
IV. The Role of Governing Law	245
CASE STUDY: REVIEWING A CONTRACT	247
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	250
Thirteen Reviewing Contracts — Content	253
I. Identifying the “Contract Concepts”	254
A. Declarations	255
B. Covenants (and Corresponding Rights)	256
C. Discretionary Authority	258
D. Representations and Warranties	259
E. Conditions	261
II. Identifying Important Common Provisions	262
A. Arbitration Clause	263
B. Forum-Selection Clause	265
C. Recovery of Attorney’s Fees	267
D. Liquidated Damages Clause	268
E. Force Majeure Clause	269
F. Indemnity Clause	270
III. Balancing Legal Advantages with Business Issues	271
CASE STUDY: THE CONTRACT CONCEPTS	273
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	280
Fourteen Litigation Documents and Dockets	283
I. Basic Civil Litigation Process	285
II. Distinguishing Criminal Litigation	287
III. Pleadings: The Boundaries of a Civil Lawsuit	288
A. Pleadings Seeking Affirmative Relief	288
B. Defensive Pleadings	290
IV. Discovery: Fact Inquiry by the Parties	292
A. Mandatory Disclosures	293
B. Interrogatories	293
C. Requests for Admission	294

D. Requests for Production	295
E. Depositions	296
V. Motions: Requests to the Court	298
A. Pre-Answer Motions	298
B. Dispositive Motions	300
VI. Dockets: The Lawsuit Table of Contents	302
CASE STUDY: LITIGATION DOCUMENTS	304
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	305
Fifteen Email and Other Correspondence	309
I. Background Law and Terminology Affecting Legal Communications	310
A. Attorney-Client Privilege and the Work-Product Doctrine	310
B. Discovery	312
C. Third-Party Discovery and Subpoenas	312
D. Document Retention Policies and Spoliation	313
E. Substantive Legal Doctrines	313
II. Overview of Legal Correspondence	314
A. Correspondence by Attorneys	314
1. Client Letters and Other Attorney-Client Communication	314
2. Demand Letters, Including Cease-and-Desist Letters	315
3. Opinion Letters	315
B. Additional Select Categories of Correspondence with Legal Implications	317
III. Selecting and Making the Most of Your Medium	317
A. Letters	318
B. Email	318
C. Text Messages	319
D. Phone Calls	320
IV. Writing Effective Correspondence	321
A. Providing Context	321
B. Organizing the Content	323
C. Being Persuasive	327
D. Editing for Appropriate Voice and Style	331
E. Wrapping Up	332
V. Email Etiquette and Legal Communications	332
CASE STUDY: DRAFTING EMAIL	334
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	335
Sixteen Working with Facts	337
I. Facts, Inferences, Characterizations, and Conclusions	339
A. What Is a Fact?	340
1. Subjective Beliefs and Intent as Facts	340

2. Knowledge and Constructive Knowledge	341
3. Common Sense	342
B. What Makes a Fact Relevant?	342
1. Determining Relevance	343
2. Background Facts	346
C. Inferences	347
D. Characterizations	348
E. Legal Conclusions	348
II. Generating Questions: Purposeful Curiosity	350
III. Timelines and Other Visual Tools	352
IV. Describing and Summarizing Facts	354
A. Including Significant Facts	355
B. Organizing by Chronology and Topic	355
C. Designing for the Reader	358
D. Strategic Detail	359
E. Acknowledging Gaps	359
F. Attributing the Source of Facts	360
G. Including Only Facts, not Opinion or Conjecture	361
H. Being Clear and Concise	362
1. Minimizing Passive Voice Verbs	362
2. Using Concrete Nouns and Subjects	362
V. Conclusion	363
CASE STUDY: EVALUATING FACTS	363
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	366
Seventeen Persuasive Writing	369
I. Introduction to Persuasion	370
A. Persuasion through Influence	370
B. Classic Rhetoric and Persuasion	371
C. Desire and Fear (Carrot and Stick)	372
D. Cognitive Psychology	372
E. Chains of Argument	373
F. Bringing the Theories Together: Common Themes	374
II. Introduction to Legal Persuasion: Legal Sources and Legal Arguments	374
A. Background on Persuasive Legal Arguments	375
B. Types of Legal Arguments	375
III. Persuasion in Context	379
A. Text	380
B. Intent	383
C. Precedent	386
D. Tradition	388
E. Policy	389

IV. Enhancements to Persuasive Legal Arguments	392
A. Consider Adding Narrative	392
B. Consider Adding Visuals	393
V. Enhancing Your Persuasion with Editing and Proofreading	394
CASE STUDY: OLIVIA RALSTON'S COMMENT ADVOCATING
FOR OAT MILK	395
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	396
Eighteen Accurate and Consistent Legal Writing	397
I. Plain Language and Writing for the Reader	398
II. Accuracy	399
A. Using Legal Terms of Art Accurately and Appropriately	399
1. Keeping the Legal Term and Adding an Explanation	401
2. Keeping the Legal Term and Adding an Example	401
3. Replacing a Term—Cautiously	402
B. Describing the Logic in Legal Information Accurately	402
C. Quoting Accurately and with Integrity	404
III. Consistency	406
IV. Punctuation Review	408
A. Using an Apostrophe to Make a Word Possessive, Not to Make a Word Plural	408
B. Using the Oxford Comma	408
C. Avoiding the Comma Splice	409
D. Using a Complete Sentence Before a Colon	411
E. Using a Semicolon for Complex Lists and Balanced Independent
Clauses	411
V. Accuracy and Consistency with Singular Pronouns: An Evolving
Situation	413
VI. Unlearning Old Writing Beliefs and Habits	415
CASE STUDY: IMPROVEMENT THROUGH EDITING	416
TRADITIONS AND TRENDS	417
Nineteen Clear and Concise Legal Writing	419
I. Clear and Concise Words	420
A. General Word Choice	420
1. Precise Word Choice	420
2. Concrete Word Choice	421
3. Minimizing Nominalizations	421
B. Concise Word Choice	422
C. Special Focus: Passive Voice	423
D. Can Writing Be Too Concise?	426

II. Clear and Concise Sentences	427
A. Use One Main Idea per Sentence	427
B. Use a Concrete Subject	428
C. Use a Concrete Verb	430
D. Keep Subjects and Verbs Close Together	431
E. Use Parallel Language for Lists and Parallel Items	432
III. Clear and Concise Paragraphs	435
IV. Clarity in Organization and Design	436
V. Conclusion: Reforming “Legalese”	437
CASE STUDY: CLEAR AND CONCISE EDITING	438
Appendix A Tess Williams Case File (re: MegaMart)	441
Appendix B Olivia’s Beans Case File (re: Earth Foods, Inc.)	447
Appendix C Bibliography of Online Legal Glossaries	457
Government Websites	457
Academic Websites	458
Other Websites	458
Translations	458
Appendix D Simplified Docket in Dell’s Maraschino Cherries Co. v. Shoreline Fruit Growers, Inc.	459
Appendix E Dell’s Maraschino Cherries Co. v. Shoreline Fruit Growers, Inc.	467
Index	481

First Edition Acknowledgments

Many colleagues and friends have given feedback and advice on this book and on the pedagogy that led to this book. We are extremely grateful for their time, wisdom, and specific advice. Thank you to the following:

Emory Law student research assistants Dakota Fraley, Christian Morbidelli, Josh Jackson, and Jenna Corcoran; and Emory Law student Mary Bryan. Special acknowledgments are in order for Christian Morbidelli and Josh Jackson, who played crucial roles in developing the story of Olivia Ralston for the case study in this book. Texas A&M Law faculty James McGrath, Susan Phillips, Lisa Rich, Frank Snyder, and Nancy Welsh played valuable roles—frequently unaware—in the curricular “proof of concept” reflected in so many aspects of this book. Thanks also to Emory Law Librarians Elizabeth Christian and Christina Glon. We are grateful to Rhonda Burge and Kay Murphy for their skillful proofreading. We are also grateful to Jeannette Livingston at Emory Law for her able and timely administrative support.

We are also grateful to many other colleagues and friends who shared their expertise, reviewed chapters, and answered questions that helped us shape the direction of this book:

Renee Allen	Nicole Iannarone	Kamina Pinder
Lacy Bell	Jennifer Judge	Rebecca Purdom
Alexa Chew	Scott Killingsworth	Jeremy Richter
Nancy Daspit	Katrina June Lee	Suzanne Rowe
Joe Fore	Ellie Margolis	Robert Schapiro
Iselin Gambert	Jenn Mathews	Julie Seaman
Carl Gebo	Nancy Overholtzer	Allison Thornton
Mindy Goldstein	Robert Parrish	Sasha Volokh
Emmett Griner	Sue Payne	Reynolds Wilson
Eve Powell Griner		Keely Youngblood

Second Edition Acknowledgments

This second edition would not have been possible without the tremendous encouragement and feedback we received from scores of adopters and users of the first edition. Your suggestions have been invaluable—even when we couldn't quite pull them off—and your enthusiasm for the endeavor of teaching legal skills to law-adjacent professionals has been a constant source of encouragement.

We would like to extend special thanks in connection with the second edition to Jennifer Cooper, Mary Kathryn Davidson, David Dye, Emory Law librarians Elizabeth Christian and Christina Glon (again), Stephen Hardwick, Marcus Keegan, James Kiser, Matthew Lawrence, Mike Lissner, Jeannette Livingston (again), the Honorable Mark T. Pittman, James Romig, Allison Thornton (again), Sasha Volokh (again), and Laura Weidig. Rhonda Burge was once again invaluable with her proofreading.

