Keeping Up to Date

From time to time, the editors of The Bluebook announce minor rule changes, correct errors in examples, or revise entries in the White Pages tables. When these changes affect practitioners' citations, an online update to Understanding and Mastering The Bluebook is posted.

This book was updated using the first printing of the 22nd edition of The Bluebook. When a new printing is issued, updates to this guide are available on our update page, available at the web address below.

To determine which printing of The Bluebook you are using, turn to the page facing the title page:

- If you see First Printing 2025, you are using the first printing.
- If you see a list similar to the following, you are using a later printing of The Bluebook. Your printing is the last one included in the list.

Second Printing 20xx

Etc.

- If you do not see a list, you are using the first printing.

Your printing is the last one included in the list.
