Series Editor's Foreword

The Carolina Academic Press Mastering Series is designed to provide you with a tool that will enable you to easily and efficiently “master” the substance and content of law school courses. Throughout the series, the focus is on quality writing that makes legal concepts understandable. As a result, the series is designed to be easy to read and is not unduly cluttered with footnotes or cites to secondary sources.

In order to facilitate student mastery of topics, the Mastering Series includes a number of pedagogical features designed to improve learning and retention. At the beginning of each chapter, you will find a “Roadmap” that tells you about the chapter and provides you with a sense of the material that you will cover. A “Checkpoint” at the end of each chapter encourages you to stop and review the key concepts, reiterating what you have learned. Throughout the book, key terms are explained and emphasized. Finally, a “Master Checklist” at the end of each book reinforces what you have learned and helps you identify any areas that need review or further study.

We hope that you will enjoy studying with, and learning from, the Mastering Series.

Request

No work of law is ever complete because the law is a living organism. I hope that the readers of this volume will help prepare subsequent editions by emailing me their suggestions at lazer@sandiego.edu.

Acknowledgments

I have been blessed with helpful research associates. Arien Koorn USD 2010, Jennifer Scott USD 2011, and Rachel Weitzman of USD's Class of 2015 did preliminary spadework. Lindsey Hertzig and Kerry Swendt of USD's Class of 2015 enabled this work to be published on time by preparing first drafts of some materials, suggesting ways that chapters might be organized, and reviewing my convoluted prose to assure that it would be intelligible to law students.

The University of San Diego financed the activities of my research associates, as well as providing me with research grants to help push the work toward completion.

My colleagues Lawrence Alexander, David Brennan, Nancy Carol Carter, Derrick Cartright, Walter Heiser, Adam Hirsch, Judge David Laro, William Lawrence, Pierre Legrand, Lisa Ramsey, Maimon Schwarzschild, Christopher Wonnell and Sally Yard have generously discussed specific legal or practical problems with me or read drafts.

Marshall Becker of Westchester State, Charles Craver of George Washington, William Dodge of Hastings, Patty Gerstenblith of DePaul, Philadelphia sculptor Harold Kimmelman (1923–2013), Jan Kosel of Golden Gate, Jennifer Kreder of Northern Kentucky, Michael Murray of Valparaiso, and William Wang of Hastings have all shared their insights, and Jane Ginsburg of Columbia went far beyond the call of duty in critiquing drafts of several chapters.
