Dedicated to my daughters, Nellie and Mia, and my grandchildren, Amelia and Jordan, who continue to shine the light on my never-ending dedication to the police profession.

—Maria (Maki) Haberfeld

*This volume is dedicated to former John Jay President Gerald Lynch for his unwavering dedication to building John Jay's mission of being a globally recognized institution to bridge the gap between theory and practice in policing and criminal justice.
It is also dedicated to current President Karol Mason for her commitment to the same. This volume is also for all my students, past and present, who continue to bring their passion for criminal justice and helping people to the world.*

—Heath Grant

Dedicated to my wonderful husband and children for their love and support. Also, thank you to my parents for their example, guidance and love.

—Lauren Leighton

Acknowledgments

We would like to acknowledge Sara Hall who displayed an amazing patience and support for a project that took some very long time to complete. Her willingness to accept our explanations and excuses as the concept evolved was truly unprecedented and we are tremendously grateful for her professionalism and faith in us.

We would also like to express our gratitude and extend our respect to the N.Y.P.D. practitioners who contributed their research projects to this volume. Their tenacity and determination produced outcomes that will serve as model practitioner-academic collaboration that will move police profession a few steps forward.

Finally, our profound gratitude goes to the Carolina Academic Press production team headed by Susan Trimble.
