About the Authors

---

Damon V. Pike is President of The Pike Law Firm. P.C., a boutique law firm headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, which specializes in customs and international trade consulting and litigation. The firm helps multinational companies navigate the complex rules governing the cross-border movement of goods and services, with the goal of minimizing duty, VAT, and excise tax payments, while maximizing corporate trade compliance to eliminate the risk of costly and time-consuming audits, investigations, and penalty cases. Prior to launching his own firm in 2006, Damon spent 13 years with Deloitte & Touche and led the firm's U.S. customs consulting practice. He also served as a law clerk to the Honorable R. Kenton Musgrave at the U.S. Court of International Trade from 1989-1990. Damon is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Emory University in Atlanta and is a former Chair of the Customs Law Committee of the American Bar Association's Section of International Law. He graduated with honors from Duke University in 1984 and received his law degree from Wake Forest University. Damon lives in Jupiter, Florida.

Lawrence Friedman is a partner in the law firm of Barnes, Richardson & Colburn, which has served the needs of importers and exporters since 1919. Larry started his career as a law clerk to the Honorable Dominick L. DiCarlo of the U.S. Court of International Trade and is an Adjunct Professor of Law at the Center for International Law at the John Marshall Law School in Chicago. He is President of the Customs and International Trade Bar Association and is a past Chair of the Customs Law Committee of the Section of International Law of the American Bar Association. In his practice, Larry assists companies in establishing legally compliant import and export processes and litigates customs matters before the U.S. Court of International Trade and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Larry lives in Chicago with his understanding wife and son. He also covers customs and trade related legal developments on his blog at www.customslawblog.com.

Acknowledgments

---

This book is the culmination of a team effort by the co-authors and many people who provided help and support. Those people include our research assistants from Emory Law School and the John Marshall Law School: Amy Jensen, Jessica Oldani, and Aaron Gotlib. Jang Hwan “Jay” Cho, an associate at The Pike Law Firm, deserves special thanks for his efforts. We are also grateful for the contributions of our firms, clients, friends, and family, all of whom provided more support than they may realize. We want to specially acknowledge the invaluable contribution of Judge Leo M. Gordon of the U.S. Court of International Trade. Judge Gordon, who served as Clerk of the Court when both authors were law clerks there, provided inspiration and guidance throughout the drafting of this book and our respective careers.
