

The Pirate Next Door

The Pirate Next Door

*The Untold Story of Eighteenth Century
Pirates' Wives, Families and Communities*

Daphne Palmer Geanacopoulos

CAROLINA ACADEMIC PRESS

Durham, North Carolina

Copyright © 2017
Daphne Palmer Geanacopoulos
All Rights Reserved

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Names: Geanacopoulos, Daphne Palmer.

Title: The pirate next door : the untold story of eighteenth century pirates' wives, families and communities / Daphne Palmer Geanacopoulos.

Description: Durham, North Carolina : Carolina Academic Press, LLC, 2016. | Includes bibliographical references and index.

Identifiers: LCCN 2016036257 | ISBN 9781611638752 (alk. paper)

Subjects: LCSH: Pirates--History--18th century. | Pirates--Social life and customs. | Pirates--Social conditions.

Classification: LCC G535 .G42 2016 | DDC 910.4/5--dc23

LC record available at <https://lccn.loc.gov/2016036257>

CAROLINA ACADEMIC PRESS, LLC
700 Kent Street
Durham, North Carolina 27701
Telephone (919) 489-7486
Fax (919) 493-5668
www.cap-press.com

Printed in the United States of America

For David, Christina and Danielle

Contents

Author's Note	ix
Introduction	3
Chapter 1 · Samuel Bellamy—“Black Sam” and His Lady on the Shore	19
Chapter 2 · Paulsgrave Williams—Deep Roots and Family Ties	49
Chapter 3 · William Kidd—The Woman Behind the Pirate	65
Chapter 4 · Samuel Burgess—Window into the Private Lives of Pirates	93
Conclusion	101
Notes	111
Bibliography	121
Index	133

Author's Note

I would like to thank the following people for their valuable assistance in writing this book: Bethany Bower, Ken Gross, Dennis Todd, Ori Soltes, Colleen Lawrie, Chuck O'Connor, Betsy Griffith Daniel, my uncle, Vernon Valentine Palmer, the late Kenneth J. Kinkor and Betsy Sigman. Sarah Hodge from the New York Public Library, Bert Lippincott, III from the Newport Historical Society, Millie McGinnes from the Block Island Town Clerk's office, Wallace Joiner from the Frist Center for the Visual Arts, Paul Johnson at the Image Library of the National Archives in London, Barry Clifford with the Whydah Pirate Museum, and the staffs at the Rhode Island Historical Society, Massachusetts Archives, and the Manuscripts and Maps Divisions of the Library of Congress were extremely cordial and helpful. A special thank you to my publisher Keith Sipe, Linda Lacy, and his wonderful staff at Carolina Academic Press who made this book possible. Finally, I could not have done without the love and good cheer of my family—my daughters Danielle and Christina, and especially my husband, David.

I would like to add that in the sections where I have quoted from a primary source, I have left the spelling and grammar in its original form to give the reader the full effect of the language of the period.

