Dedications

This book is dedicated to Ruth and Paul Kramer, who taught me at a very early age to understand that it is the bottom line that counts

and

to Frederick Eisenbud, who has taught me so many other things.

LAK

This book is dedicated to my parents, Welville B. Nowak and the late Ruth G. Nowak, for teaching me to believe in myself,

and

to my husband, Joseph R. Lombardo, for his encouragement and patience.

Acknowledgements

There are a number of people to whom we will be forever grateful for their contributions to this book. They have made our days far easier and have made what has sometimes seemed an insurmountable task both manageable and, yes, fun. We would like to thank and recognize the talented librarians who work at the Touro Law Center library — in particular, Irene Crisci, Isaac Samuels, Laura Ross, and Stacy Posillico. We also would like to thank our hard-working research assistants — Luann Dallojacono, Gregory De Tolla, and Daniel Gili. Thank you, also, to faculty assistant Cathy Cembrale, who has always been willing to assist with good cheer. And thank you to all the students in our Law Practice Management classes for providing helpful feedback on the simulations in the teacher’s manual that accompanies this book. Last, and certainly not least, we would like to thank our dean, Patricia Salkin, who has supported us, encouraged us, and cheered us on with this project.
